Bad Feminist Roxane Gay on the Complexities and Blind

There is an essential feminism or, as I perceive this essentialism, the notion that there are right and wrong ways to be a feminist and that there are consequences for doing feminism wrong. [] The most significant problem with essential feminism is how it doesn t allow for the complexities of human experience or individuality.

SparkNotes The Scarlet Letter Is Hester Prynne a feminist

In the time period when The Scarlet Letter takes place, there was no such thing as a feminist in the modern sense, yet Hester's character combines traditional ideas of feminine behavior with a free-thinking and rebellious perspective that can be seen as kind of precursor to later feminist philosophy. When the reader first sees her, Hester is described as a beautiful new mother who resembles
